

Stop! Do you know that you can save Big Money by reading Every line of the ads in the Review. We guarantee this to you. It's up to you to make good.

THE REVIEW

12 Pages this week, well worth your careful attention. The ads point you to the "Road of Big Values." Follow the sign and arrive safely

The Review is read and appreciated by that large body of people who buy four-fifths of the goods sold in High Point---the laboring people

Vol. 13, No. 6

High Point, N. C., Thursday, Feb. 3, 1916

12 Pages

SAD ACCIDENT

KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN.

Fourteen-Year-Old Lafayette Lambert Meets Horrible Death—Boy Mangled Almost Beyond Recognition.

Friday afternoon at 4:35 o'clock Lafayette Lambert, the 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lambert, living on the corner of Virginia avenue and Broad street, met a horrible death on the yards of the Southern railway, in front of the Bellevue hotel.

From eye witnesses it seems that young Lambert jumped on freight No. 65 at the passenger depot and rode some 85 or more feet, when he jumped off. The train was moving slowly and he again caught the iron rods on the side of a box car, but his feet failed to find the foot rod, or axle box, when he lost control and fell to the ground. Whether he tried to roll out of the way or whether the force of the fall caused his body to roll is a matter of conjecture, but the wheels caught his clothing and pulled his body underneath the train, crushing and mangle the form almost beyond recognition.

When the train had passed over the body on its way to the next station only fragments of the body were left to tell the story of the crushing out of a young life so full of promise. Here and there along the track were found fragments of the body, an arm, parts of the skull and bowels, twisted and mangled legs and the major portion of the trunk of his body, while the last thing to be found further west was the head, completely severed at the neck and one side of the face crushed with enough of the head left to show his facial features.

When the editor arrived on the scene the flesh on parts of the body was missing, showing that the accident had just happened.

The fragments of the body were picked up by Undertakers J. W. and R. H. Sechrist and carried to their parlors, to be prepared for burial.

The young man was well and favorably known, a bright gentlemanly fellow and a student at the high school. He is survived by a father and mother, five sisters, Misses Bessie, Emily, Corinna, Lola and Esther, and two brothers, Messrs. Gabriel and Fred.

The funeral services were conducted from St. Mary's Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, attended by a large crowd of sympathizing friends. The services were in charge of Rev. L. W. Blackwelder, assisted by Archdeacon Hardin, of Salisbury.

The floral offerings were very pretty. The schoolmates of the deceased attended in a body. Lafayette had not missed a Sunday school lesson at his church in five years.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. M. C. Crowson, Ed. P. Parker, Robert Brockett, Jr., H. I. Coffield, A. D. Brockett and P. S. Johnson.

The family have the sympathy of all in their very sad bereavement.

Faints When Hears of Brother's Death. Miss Bess Lambert, who is employed at the office of Attorney T. J. Gold, heard that her brother Lafayette was killed. Running down street to the store of the Leonard-Beavans-Stamey Co., she asked Miss Wilson, a clerk, if she could tell her if the report was true. Miss Wilson in order to break the news to her replied that he was badly hurt, whereupon Miss Lambert fainted and it was several minutes before she regained consciousness.

Mr. Beavans, the manager, rushed to the drug store for restoratives while physicians were summoned. Dr. Jackson took Miss Lambert home in his auto and remained with her until out of danger.

Alleged High Pointers Skip Court

Asheville, Feb. 2.—Magistrate B. L. Lydia is looking for three men claiming High Point as their home who preferred to leave a Waltham gold watch, valued at about $30 and two overcoats, in good condition rather than pay fines into the court last night which aggregated $14.55.

Five men: I. K. Greer, Floyd Reed, Eugene Jether, John Nalls, Jr., and Albert Stencil, were arrested yesterday afternoon by railroad detectives here on charges of trespassing on the Southern railway by beating their way on trains.

Two of the men paid the costs which amounted to $4.85 in each case. The other three begged the court to be allowed time to wire to their homes for the money, rather than be locked in jail all night. This request was granted and it is understood that the men received the money this morning and proceeded on their way without notifying the court of their plans.

THINGS PERSONAL AND OF A GENERAL NATURE

Mrs. A. E. Teetor was operated upon at the local hospital Monday and is doing well.

The announcement of the forthcoming marriage of D. Ralph Parker, of this city, to Miss Eunice Anderson, of Charlotte has been made for this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirkman have returned from a stay of two weeks at Atlantic City and New York.

David Harris, student at Chapel Hill, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harris.

The Randolph Progress is a new paper for Randleman, with Messrs. W. F. Hunsucker and C. L. Scott at the helm. It is independent in thought. Here's for its success.

Little Miss Mary Drew, the interesting daughter of Judge and Mrs. Carter Dalton, is recovering from a recent indisposition.

Mrs. Walter Chandler has returned from Hopewell, where she has been for sometime on account of the illness of her sister, Miss Annie, who had pneumonia, leaving her recovering nicely.

Mrs. M. J. West, of Bennettsville, S. C., is the guest of Mrs. Albert E. Tate on Broad street.

Robert Amos was on the sick list last week.

Dr. H. B. Hiatt desires The Review to say that his appointment to the medical department of the North Carolina militia will not necessitate his leaving High Point at all and will continue to practice medicine in the best town in the state.

W. C. Christ, of Winston, attended the Baird lecture here Sunday.

R. F. Rice, of Goose Grease fame, was a visitor Friday.

Walker and Dorsett, the two negroes electrocuted Friday for the murder of Farmer John Swain, near Greensboro, last year, confessed their guilt.

Rev. H. A. Copenhaver and family of St. Paris, Ohio, arrived here last week. Mr. Copenhaver is the new pastor of Bethel Reformed church.

Dr. L. K. Mock, of Thomasville, died last week, after an illness of three days.

R. B. Terry spent a few days with his family at St. Petersburg, Fla., last week, where they are wintering.

Mrs. Frank Wood is getting along nicely since her unfortunate accident.

Mrs. Edward Ruth, of Columbia, Pa., sister of Mrs. Grace Kephart, died last week. Mrs. Kephart attended the funeral.

The High Point Electric Shoe Shop has an ad in this issue. Be sure to read it.

High Point Motor Co. has half page ad. See what is said.

This is "Thrift Day" over the country and every one should decide to place something in the banks for the inevitable rainy day.

It is a certainty that the ground hog did not see his shadow yesterday, moreover we don't believe the creature had the nerve to even venture from his winter hole.

We call attention to the ad of H. Harris and Bro. in this issue. Watch this space each week and it will prove interesting to the buyer.

Did you see the partial eclipse of the sun this morning?

The city council is planning to put in a plant for the disposal and purification of the sewerage waste and Col. Ludlow of Winston, an expert on such matters will come over and look over a tract on the Penny farm as a feasible location.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hart spent Tuesday in Greensboro.

C. E. Keiger, a former High Point boy but now with the Statesville Furniture Co. was in the city yesterday.

The O'Henry set of books advertised in this issue should be in the library of every home. You can buy them for a small sum too. Mention The Review when ordering and get 6 volumes of Kiplings works free. See ad today, it is the last time it will appear.

The High Point Motor Co. has leased the People's Motor Co.'s building on East Washington street and now has three garages in operation, practically controlling the business here.

How much radium could one get for $1.00 since its valuation is nine million dollars a pound? We have not time just now to figure it out.

T. R. Turner, sent to the roads from High Point for retailing took French leave Tuesday.

Messrs. E. E. Mendenhall and J. V. Apple are permanent receivers for the I. A. Morris grocery store and are now taking inventory of the stock for the purpose of sale.

So the great drama madam X, at Broadway today.

GOOD REASONS FINE VALUES

WHY YOU SHOULD TRADE HERE.

Here is a sample of the papers submitted on "Why You Should Trade at High Point, N. C." in the $5 gold prize offer of The Review closing the 25th of this month. Don't you think it is a real good one as a sample? The contributor is known as No. 26 in the contest, being the 26th to hand in communication bearing on the matter:

HIGH POINT, N. C.—WHY?

A Few Reasons Why You and I Should Buy at Home—Also Make This Your Trading Center.

1. Because my interests are here.
2. Because I want to get the goods.
3. Because I want to see what I pay for.
4. Because I believe in transacting business with friends.
5. Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods.
6. Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough to buy in.
7. Because the man I purchase from pays his part of the local taxes.
8. Because the more those about me prosper the better it is for me.
9. Because if you keep your money at home it will keep you in a home.
10. Three cheers for Greater High Point—Health and Happiness.

Slogan—"A Greater High Point."

IN RECORDER'S COURT MONDAY.

Clarence Haynes, convicted of having too much liquor in his possession and who was convicted on one count Saturday and held for court Monday on another case, squealed on other parties in court Monday, saying that he shipped two kegs of liquor to Reuben Vail from Danville and then put them in a trunk and checked them to High Point. This caused Judge Dalton to re-open the case and the verdict of guilty against Haynes was stricken out for the time being. Haynes was caught Saturday night at Jamestown with four gallons of liquor and the officers here seized 20 gallons in a trunk which Haynes says was shipped to Reuben Vail. Joe Welborn was also arrested in connection with the case at Jamestown, he being one of the three men, it is charged, whom the officers met on their way to Jamestown. Welborn gave bond, but failed to attend trial Monday, claiming he was sick and his trial was postponed.

Clarence Haynes plead guilty to the charge of retailing in superior court yesterday. Sentence was deferred until later in the week.

REGISTER TODAY.

Register for the bond election. If you fail to register you don't count at all in the final result. But if you do and vote for the bonds your vote, of course, counts, and if you fail to vote (after registering) you are counted against the bonds, the same as if you had voted against them. See the difference. See places of registration elsewhere in this issue.

TO WORK FOR COMPLETION OF ROAD.

The Manufacturers' club appointed a committee to go to Greensboro next Monday to appear with the members from the chamber of commerce of that city before the county commissioners in an effort to have the High Point-Greensboro road put in first class condition as early as possible and not wait for years as before planned, believing that the patching up process is a waste of money and that in some way the necessary money can be provided to complete the road in permanent form.

Zeppelins raid English coasts.

Wilson speaks at Milwaukee and Chicago.

Submarine K-5, missing.

All the latest war news.

President Wilson on speaking tour.

Flood sweeps valley in California.

Zeppelin raids Paris.

President Graham makes report.

312 high schools enter contest.

To safeguard state's interest. Warns insurance agents. High school fund apportioned.

Madam X Broadway Today

Don't fail to see the great million dollar drama, Madam X, at the Broadway today, featuring Dorothy Donnelly. Greatest court room scene and human drama ever enacted, over 1,000 people in cast. Admission 10c and 15c.

Mrs. W. C. Beavans Wednesday afternoon entertained the old Salem Alumnae. Mrs. O. E. Mendenhall will entertain the Over the Tea Cups Club this afternoon, as well as the Friday night Auction Club tomorrow.

Died, Monday night at 611 Richardson street Miss Novelle Quate in her 19th year. She came here last fall to work at the North State Telephone Co. Her people live at Pleasant Garden. Pneumonia caused her death.

Ed Wade, charged with the sale of liquor was before the recorder Tuesday and after hearing the evidence in the case it was continued until Monday by consent of both sides.

Clarence Haynes was given 30 days on the roads, Judge Dalton holding that the liquor in the trunk was his property also.

The editor has a set of O'Henry books and they are gems. Better order yours today. See ad.

Moffitt Furnishing Co.

OUR CLUBBING OFFER.

Following are several exceptional values in papers and magazines, offered in connection with The Review. ACT QUICK, as prices are not guaranteed for any length of time.

Offer No. 1—$1.98.

The Review, 1 year; Today's Magazine, 3 years, and two patterns. $3.30 value for only $1.98.

Offer No. 2—$1.79.

The Review, McCall's, Today's Magazine, one year; and May Mantion and McCall patterns (2), $2.85 value for $1.79.

Offer No. 3—$1.74.

The Review, The Household, Today's Magazine, all three one year each, $2.50 value for only $1.74.

Offer No. 4—Big $1.98.

The Review, Today's Magazine, Woman's World, Home Life and People's Popular Monthly, four big magazines and your home paper, all one year each for the ridiculous low price of $1.98.

Offer No. 5—Exceptionable Value.

The Review 1 year and Holland's Magazine two years for only $1.98.

Offer No. 6—$1.68.

The Home Life, the Household, Farm Life, Woman's World and The Review, all five for one year, only $1.68.

Offer No. 7—Great Value.

The Review, the Tri-Weekly (Atlanta) Constitution, Southern Farming, one year each, and the National Year Book and Encyclopedia (alone worth $2.40), all for only $1.68.

N. B.—If you are now a subscriber and pay all arrearsages to date, then you are in a position to accept the above offers the same as a new subscriber. ACT QUICK. Offers not guaranteed for any length of time.

Address The Review, High Point, N. C.

PROMOTIONS

L. E. Ryan has been promoted to rate clerk at the C. & Y. R. Railway office and Miss Clodie Young to chief clerk at the Southern freight office.

Building Activity

Some little activity was shown in the building line last month, nearly $25,000 being invested in buildings and repairs. There were 19 permits all told.

New Shoe Shop for City

An electric shoe shop has been opened in the front of the Southern Buggy Co.'s place of business on North Main and is in charge of H. J. Hagan, who comes here from Greensboro with years of experience. Mr. Hagan was in the government service in this capacity for 9 years. He is a full-blooded American, a gentleman who believes in doing honest work at a reasonable price and absolutely guarantees the work from his shop. The best oak tanned leather is used and gives double the service of the cheap, soggy kind put on by irresponsible people. Take your shoes to this concern. See ad elsewhere.

SUMMARY OF THE LATEST NEWS IN THIS ISSUE OF THE REVIEW.

Zeppelins raid English coasts.

Wilson speaks at Milwaukee and Chicago.

Submarine K-5, missing.

All the latest war news.

President Wilson on speaking tour.

Flood sweeps valley in California.

Zeppelin raids Paris.

President Graham makes report.

312 high schools enter contest.

To safeguard state's interest. Warns insurance agents. High school fund apportioned.

Madam X Broadway Today

Don't fail to see the great million dollar drama, Madam X, at the Broadway today, featuring Dorothy Donnelly. Greatest court room scene and human drama ever enacted, over 1,000 people in cast. Admission 10c and 15c.

Mrs. W. C. Beavans Wednesday afternoon entertained the old Salem Alumnae. Mrs. O. E. Mendenhall will entertain the Over the Tea Cups Club this afternoon, as well as the Friday night Auction Club tomorrow.

Died, Monday night at 611 Richardson street Miss Novelle Quate in her 19th year. She came here last fall to work at the North State Telephone Co. Her people live at Pleasant Garden. Pneumonia caused her death.

Ed Wade, charged with the sale of liquor was before the recorder Tuesday and after hearing the evidence in the case it was continued until Monday by consent of both sides.

Clarence Haynes was given 30 days on the roads, Judge Dalton holding that the liquor in the trunk was his property also.

The editor has a set of O'Henry books and they are gems. Better order yours today. See ad.

Moffitt Furnishing Co.

FOLLOWERS OF RATHBONE PLAN INTERESTING NIGHT

PROTECTION WEEK TO BE OBSERVED BY LOCAL PYTHIANS.

Monday night, February 14, will be observed as protection meeting night by High Point lodge No. 39, K. of P. At this meeting there will be exercises appropriate to the occasion and a general good time had.

The Order of the Knights of Pythians will be the subject of Attorney L. B. Williams.

Rathbone, the Founder of Our Order, by Col. D. H. Milton.

Pythianism as a Character Builder, by Rev. L. W. Blackwelder.

Our Obligation to the Order, Geo. T. Wood.

The Insurance or Protection Department, W. L. Stamey.

Every member is urged to be present that night as well as next Monday night, as something interesting is in store for them.

SCREEN STRUCK GIRLS

Read What a Movie Star Has to Say Each Week in The Review—A Big Feature for this Paper

Through an arrangement just consummated, Miss Beatriz Michelena, the operatic star who recently achieved fame in the motion picture world as the heroine of such feature photoplays as "Salome Jane," "Mignon," "Salvation Nell," etc., will become a regular contributor to the HIGH POINT REVIEW.

Miss Michelena's articles will appear under the title "Talks With Screen Struck Girls," and will endeavor to give an uncolored insight into the conditions and difficulties surrounding the average girl's first endeavor to break into the motion picture profession. The hints and advice that she has to offer are grounded on genuine experience. They will tell the screen struck girl some of the things she should do, and quite as many, perhaps, that she should not do. They will also try to correct for her many of the delusions about the ease with which motion picture acting may be mastered and the fabulous salaries that are said to be at once in waiting.

Unlike many other articles of like nature, Miss Michelena's will keep as far as possible away from mere generalities. She proposes to make each talk short and poignant and confined to one definite purpose of giving advice and information to the girl with motion picture aspirations.

[Any letters to Miss Michelena that you care to write will be forwarded if you will address them in care of The Review, High Point, N. C.]

His is a great lesson to learn, the cup of right living running over with the sweet foam of joyousness to all those who would drink and be made better.

Those who missed the talk of Major Baird's denied themselves of a rare privilege to enjoy a blessing through his words of wisdom.

High Point R. F. D. 1, News.

Mrs. James Moorefield and Mrs. John B. Motes spent Monday with Mrs. George R. Henderson.

The new barn of J. Mat Gordon is nearing completion. The friends and neighbors of Mr. Gordon have been real good in helping to get it built.

Little Miss Lola Guyer recently spent a week in the city at W. M. Jeters.

Mrs. John Guyer, of Mechanicsville, spent the day Monday at W. L. Guyer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. C. Weaver have returned to their home near Wallburg, after spending several days at W. W. and W. L. Guyer's, and Alfred Pearce's.

We are glad to know that Elsie Grissom has recovered from an attack of pneumonia and is able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lowe have a new arrival at their house, a boy.

Several from the route attended the funeral services of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedrick, at High Point Thursday.

E. C. Henderson and son, Forest, have returned from City Point, Va.

T. P. Kinney has finished sawing a bill of lumber for A. M. Payne, which is to be used for the erection of a new barn.

W. P. Jester is doing some brick work at Wallburg.

Mrs. S. N. Guyer has returned from a week's visit among relatives in High Point.

Miss Gertha Lee Smith is visiting relatives at Thomasville.

I can give her all the advice I have to offer in one short sentence. DON'T ASPIRE TO BE A MOTION PICTURE ACTRESS. The "talks" that are to follow are intended only for girls with ambition, courage and a real American determination.

And now, if my short chat above has made me sufficiently well acquainted with my readers, I have a very particular favor to ask. Please write to me and fill your letters full of questions. I shall try to answer them in my "talks". I may not find space for all, but I shall do my best and they will help me to more definitely appreciate the problems that puzzle the girl who hopes to be a picture actress. These questions will be of real assistance.

By BEATRIZ MICHELENA—No. 1 (Copyrighted January, 1916, by Beatriz Michelena)

Since this is the first "talk" of my new series, I shall use it as a sort of preface for the ones to follow.

The thing I would emphasize above all others is that motion picture acting is a genuinely worth while profession—from the artistic as well as the financial standpoint—and, as all worth while commodities, can be achieved only through hard work; patience and sacrifice.

There is no short cut nor smooth broad road to success in it. There is not always so much as a plainly blazed trail. Real ability plus a lot of grit are the only things that may eventually place a girl at the summit.

My "talks" are not intended to be sure recipes to an easy success. Observation has convinced me that there is no such thing in the motion picture profession. I shall try, however, to point out some of the difficulties that the "screen struck girl" is apt to encounter, hoping thereby to help her avoid them, or if not altogether avoid, at least recognize them when met and therefore be less prone to lose courage.

If a girl has not a good stock of patience and a heart for hard work